Albion Challenge 2020 Safety notice and terms and conditions

Please observe the following notes when participating in this event.

By registering for this event you have agreed to the event terms and conditions outlined below.

Event terms and conditions:

- By registering for this event I agree to abide by all government restrictions in relation to the Covid-19 pandemic at all times. Details of restrictions can be found here: www.gov.uk/coronavirus.
- I confirm that I am over 18, or if under 18, that I have the permission of a parent or guardian to take part.
- I understand that this is a virtual challenge and the challenge requires me to cover the distance it would take to reach a stadium from the American Express Community Stadium rather than covering the actual route.
- I understand and agree that I participate in this event at my own risk and any injuries, damages, loss etc. is my own responsibility.

Data and permissions

By entering your details you agree to the information you provide being held in a central database by AITC in accordance with The General Data Protection Regulation 2018.

Where you have indicated your consent for further communications your details will only be used by Albion in the Community and we will never give your information to other organisations to use for their own purposes.

For full details see our privacy policy: www.albioninthecommunity.org.uk/privacy.
